The AGM Hash

Virtually no time to write this this week so it'll have to be a quick one. ☺

MissDirection wandered around the full car park giving everyone the big finger. Not because she is fearfully rude but because the digit in question is massively bandaged and sticking straight out, following her attempt to lop it off recently. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Since we needed to get back for the AGM and the nights are drawing in we set off fairly rapidly, after raising a cheer at the Circle for Pantaloon, a many-years-ago-BH³-Hasher who had returned to the fold after nigh on 20 years. Welcome back Pantaloon!

It all started fairly well. Until I got chatting with OldFart, who advised me that he and Itsyor had hardly recce'd the Trail and laid most of it from The Bladebone pub a way down the road. Interesting. Even more interesting when Itsyor became lost later with Donut and Twanky...

However, the Trail wound round woods and fields and the evening was pleasant, if a tad muggy. Late summer evenings can be quite delicious. Except when Uplift and I also became lost. One minute we were following flour and waving at Mr Blobby over in another part of the woods on the Short Trail (calf injury), the next everyone had disappeared and we were wandering down a steep, rutted, muddy track that led us out on to a road with a steep tarmac hill to the right of us and a wideish track in front. Having found no flour on the track we beasted up the hill, breasting the top in a chest-heaving manner. Trouble was, we then found a road sign that pointed to Bucklebury Village all the way back down the road! Bugger! We were very lucky, when we reached the bottom again, to find, a little way on, a sign for the Walker's Trail. This led us through increasingly dark fields where the only light was from a tractor, harrowing away in the next field. After what seemed like a very long time we came to a paddock, where we were sniffed at by a friendly horse, before finding the On Inn. Gratefully, we trotted into the car park where we found Twanky, who was just as sweaty as us. ☺ Thanks to OldFart and Itsyor.

The AGM

So. Slapper's final AGM as GM; with various other Committee posts changing. BH³ sat at long tables with Slapper, MessengerBoy (Hon Sex) and SkinnyDipper (Hash Cash) at their head. It's interesting that AGMs have become much more respectable than of old, when paper aeroplanes filled the air and cries of, "Get on with it!" were heard.

Slapper, with his innovatory style, had decided to show his appreciation of the Committee members by calling them up and handing each one of the T-shirts he had collected during his tenure in office. A nice thought and much appreciated. Not too much of the applause contained boos and hissing.

The new GM accepts his position from our President while Shitfer looks on in a gormless way...

He handed over to our resident President, TinOpener, who let everyone know the names of the members of this year's Committee. Our new GM is the inestimable and popular Mr Blobby. Here's a list of everyone:-

Position	Hasher	Comment
GM	Mr Blobby	If he makes even half as good a job of it as Slapper he will do perfectly
HashMash	No takers... yet	Can anyone match up to NoSole? Excellent repast tonight
Hon Sex	MessengerBoy	Re-elected due to his excellent minute-taking with no spelling mistakes
Webmaster	Iceman	He's going for the gold watch
Hash Ents	Ms. Whiplash	I always find her very entertaining
DogsBody	Slapper	Zebedee handed over his Dogs Bollocks kit to Slapper
Foghorn	RA	People will certainly hear him
HashTick and Membership	C5 and Florence	Seriously good enforcers. If you find a horse's head next to you in bed you'll know you haven't paid your dues
Scribe	Hashgate	Her Majesty's Press hack re-elected again
Haberdash	Slippery	Looking forward to her sartorial offerings
HashCash	SkinnyDipper	The next Mark Carney
TrailMaster	Zebedee	He's really rather good at this

On On. Hashgate.

Down Downs

Shitfer's very last appointment with the office of RA. We cheered him for all the work he has put into the job and his generosity – he has bought a variety of presents for Down Down recipients. Thanks Shitfer – we've enjoyed having you as RA. 😊

Who Got It

Why

Pantaloon	Tonight's returnee
A new chap	Sorry – don't know his name
Itsyor, OldFart	Tonight's Hares
Mr Blobby	To welcome our new GM
Shitfer	He congratulated himself on being RA
HappyFeet	Shitfer always liked to give her one... he said
SlowSucker	Curiously, the same reason as HappyFeet!
SkinnyDipper	Because she doesn't get enough Down Downs
Spot	He got two, partly because he always nips off before Shitfer has been able to award him a drink
Desperate	"Being the gobbiest cow on the Hash."
Foghorn	I believe there was a spare drink 😊
