The Hash

Hashgate - since I was abroad this week, Shitfor kindly stood in as cub Scribe. Herewith his matchless prose. My thanks to him... and yours, of course. ☺

What a lovely sunny morning, with a circle from our esteemed gm. I have forgotten his name as we don't see him much!!!

We on outed through the field, and came back to the field. Then out of the field then back to the field! Then out of the field and away at last!. Boy how I loved that field!

As I was running I thought the hash could be named, the lion witch and the wardrobe as Dorothy and Twanky were hares. I did tell flo what I had named the hash she then decided to tell me who was who! twanky was the wardrobe (a triple one) Dorothy was the lion and skids was the witch. Simple over heard this and said she was more of a bitch!

The hares said it was going to be an epic trail. There was an epic amount of flour. In fact BGB could have laid 3 or 4 trails with that amount! There was an epic circle as big as the artic. There were some epic up hills and down hills. It was a bit like the tortoise and the hare. The FRBs were the hares and the hares were the tortoise! Every time the FRBs thought the hares had disappeared they would suddenly appear at the next check all nonchalant.

It was a long trail and well marked.

On On. Shitfor

Down Downs

Who Got It

Why

Zeb and Flo	For recently running a marathon (Ed: no details given)
Zeb	3000 runs (Ed: this may be a slight exaggeration)
ICC	Taking selfies en route
